SEE THE DIFFERENCE
FEEL THE DIFFERENCE
SAVE THE DIFFERENCE

We have all heard the saying “you get what you paid for”. Well, not at EG-PRO, as you get more than what you paid for.

The structure of our company being factory owned enables us to offer you superior garments at tremendous prices. Our factories are top shelf, so we manufacture top quality apparel and because we are not changing our sources, we maintain consistency.

Our poly rich fabrics decorate without any problems. We incorporate some special premium proprietary fabrics into our line which have drawn raves from our customers and clients.

You have the choice to continue to buy from the “big guys” or find out why it is worth your while to buy factory direct from EG-PRO. You can increase your profits while still passing along savings to your customers.

Take a close look at EG-PRO before your next apparel purchase. Hope to hear from you soon.

Due to the double-knit technique with the polypropylene fibers this garment cannot be screen-printed.

This fabric cannot withstand temperatures higher than 240° fahrenheit. Temperatures higher than 240° may damage the fibers in the garment.

It is recommended exclusively for embroidery and specific heat seal applications applied below 240° fahrenheit.

FEATURES + BENEFITS

TERMS AND CONDITIONS

Shipping is from our warehouses located in Overland Park Kansas, Queens New York, and Chino California depending on the ship to zip code. All orders placed by 3:00 PM will ship the same day; however, orders placed after 3:00 PM will ship on the next business day. Net 30 terms available to qualified accounts upon completion of a credit application. Approved customers can access our website at www.egpro.com to place an order.

Please include a Purchase Order number when placing an order. A purchase order is a reference number that you assign to the order. It is a sequence of numbers and/or letters that help you keep track of what you have ordered. If you do not use PO's then it is recommended that you at least use the date to remember when you placed the order. We require a PO Number on all orders.

When you make a purchase the funds will be reserved on your credit card. The day after your order ships, the funds will be transferred from your account to EG-PRO. If you do have back orders, you will not be charged for those items until they ship. You may email PO's to: sales@egpro.com - upon receipt you will receive an email confirmation as soon as the order is processed through our invoicing system. If you call in an order you will receive an email confirmation a few minutes after the call is finished. If you do not receive a confirmation number, please contact our customer service department so we can resolve the issue immediately. While EG-PRO allows you to place backorders we cannot guarantee when these products will be available to ship. If you provide us with your contact information we will call you once inventory is available.

EG-PRO will not accept returns that have been decorated or damaged.

RETURNS:

Please contact us for a RA number and have your PO number available: You have 30 days from receipt to request a return. After you receive the approved RA number, package up the goods and make sure the RA number is on the shipping label. Ship the goods back to EG-PRO at our east coast or west coast warehouses depending on where the shipment originated from. The freight charges to return the goods will be your responsibility. You will be charged a 15% restocking fee for returned undamaged products. Any goods, which have been decorated and / or damaged in any way, cannot be returned.

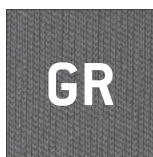

SHORT SHIPMENTS:

You have 10 days from the invoice date to acknowledge shortages. If we find information on our end that indicates a short shipment, we will immediately ship out what is missing and EG-PRO will pay the freight for the replenishment items. Please have your PO number and a list of items your returning when contacting us for assistance.

EG is for ELBOW-GREASE: Noun: Strenuous physical effort and hard work.

EXPLANATION: Used when stressing how much effort is required to achieve a desired result.

SYNONYMS: Sweat; exertion; labor; muscle; strain; strive; strength; succeed.

EG-PRO PERFORMANCE GEAR

Athletic and comfort with a modern twist best defines the EG-PRO 2020 performance team and athleisure inspired collection of blank apparel.

Lifting 2020 to new heights, we introduced additional team styles as well as women's and kids options into the mix. We expanded our range of proprietary fabrics in a variety of weights, finishes and technologies.

We now offer an extensive selection of shorts to fill all your needs for this category. See our new Full Zip Hoodies in our popular Space Dyed fabric and Tech Fleece.

Encouraged by the positive response to our Enduro Flex Legging we have expanded our selection including leggings produced in our popular EVO Heather fabric.

Our color block tees add some flair to our tee selection. With sales skyrocketing in our Baseball Raglan we now offer this in youth and have added a white body baseball tee.

Please consider EG-PRO for your next Team or Corporate promotion purchase.

TERMS AND CONDITIONS

Shipping is from our warehouses located in Overland Park Kansas, Queens New York, and Chino California depending on the ship to zip code. All orders placed by 3:00 PM will ship the same day; however, orders placed after 3:00 PM will ship on the next business day. Net 30 terms available to qualified accounts upon completion of a credit application. Approved customers can access our website at www.egpro.com to place an order.

Please include a Purchase Order number when placing an order. A purchase order is a reference number that you assign to the order. It is a sequence of numbers and/or letters that help you keep track of what you have ordered. If you do not use PO's then it is recommended that you at least use the date to remember when you placed the order. We require a PO Number on all orders.

When you make a purchase the funds will be reserved on your credit card. The day after your order ships, the funds will be transferred from your account to EG-PRO. If you do have back orders, you will not be charged for those items until they ship. You may email PO's to: sales@egpro.com - upon receipt you will receive an email confirmation as soon as the order is processed through our invoicing system. If you call in an order you will receive an email confirmation a few minutes after the call is finished. If you do not receive a confirmation number, please contact our customer service department so we can resolve the issue immediately. While EG-PRO allows you to place backorders we cannot guarantee when these products will be available to ship. If you provide us with your contact information we will call you once inventory is available.

EG-PRO will not accept returns that have been decorated or damaged.

RETURNS:

Please contact us for a RA number and have your PO number available: You have 30 days from receipt to request a return. After you receive the approved RA number, package up the goods and make sure the RA number is on the shipping label. Ship the goods back to EG-PRO at our east coast or west coast warehouses depending on where the shipment originated from. The freight charges to return the goods will be your responsibility. You will be charged a 15% restocking fee for returned undamaged products. Any goods, which have been decorated and / or damaged in any way, cannot be returned.

SHORT SHIPMENTS:

You have 10 days from the invoice date to acknowledge shortages. If we find information on our end that indicates a short shipment, we will immediately ship out what is missing and EG-PRO will pay the freight for the replenishment items. Please have your PO number and a list of items your returning when contacting us for assistance.
